To Real Estate Owners.

I have opened an agency for the sale of real estate, and have already made several important sales. Parties wishing sales of town propesty or of farms in the country, can apply to me at the News office. Heretofore there has been no point at which an inquirer could find out what could be had in the way of land or town property. I propose that hereafter all such shall call at this office and learn who wish to sell, what they will sell, and what at.

Monday of last week the Abingdon bar passed resolutions touching the death of Mr. U. L. York. Addresses were made by Messrs. D, Trigg, D. F. Bailey, S. Longley and Col. Fulkerson. I saw my old friend Mark J. Kennedy on street last week. He is one of the finest stock traders in the county. Next Friday at 11 A. M. a very important meeting will open at Corner House church 8 miles north of Abingdon, being the annual meeting of the Christian church for S. W. Va., E. Tenn. and W. N. C. There will be a number of distinguished foreign preachers there, as Miss Mary Barnes, recently of Ky., a and the occasion will not only be impordaughter of Capt. Ed. Capt. Riddleberger, perhaps the finest speaker now on the Va. stump, will speak at Grange Hall near Benham's Mill, Thursday the 15th day of September. It is suggested that the friends make it a basket meeting. There will doubtless be a very large crowd in attendance, and the Readjusters will make it a grand rally. I see at the closing exercises of the Normal school at Abingdon, a spleudid copy of Shakespeare was presented to Miss Mollie Baker. Miss Baker has been teaching at Huntsville, Ala., and this compliment to her is one richly merited and of high value.

Gen, Imboden is at present in Richmond, but will return in a few days .-He has informed me that he intends to let the balance of the work between Bristol and Mendota to contract in a short time. He also says it is the purpose of the Co. to push the grading and track laying as far as Estiliville this season. The sinking of the Nickels and Rader cuts is now going vigorously ahead under Mr. Campbell. The N. & W, passenger shed and new depot are large, and while they appear to progress
